Letter received from Mrs. John Cole

Milford, Ont. 10 June 1960

Jan 22/34

I thought I would tell you something of my Grandmother. She was a sister of Conrad Sells at Conway. Aunt Eliza her daughter was a weaver.

I saw all three houses standing on the farm. First one log. Next a frame and then Uncle Joshua, his son built the one that stands there now. Used the cellar of Grandfather's frame house for his cellar.

No potato bugs then. William Henry Rikley had the first anywhere around.

Lizzie Sugswell had the first sewing machine and myself the second one for miles around. There is now the first lamp that was on Hazy Bay shore sitting in Mrs. John Cole's house, my daughter's home.

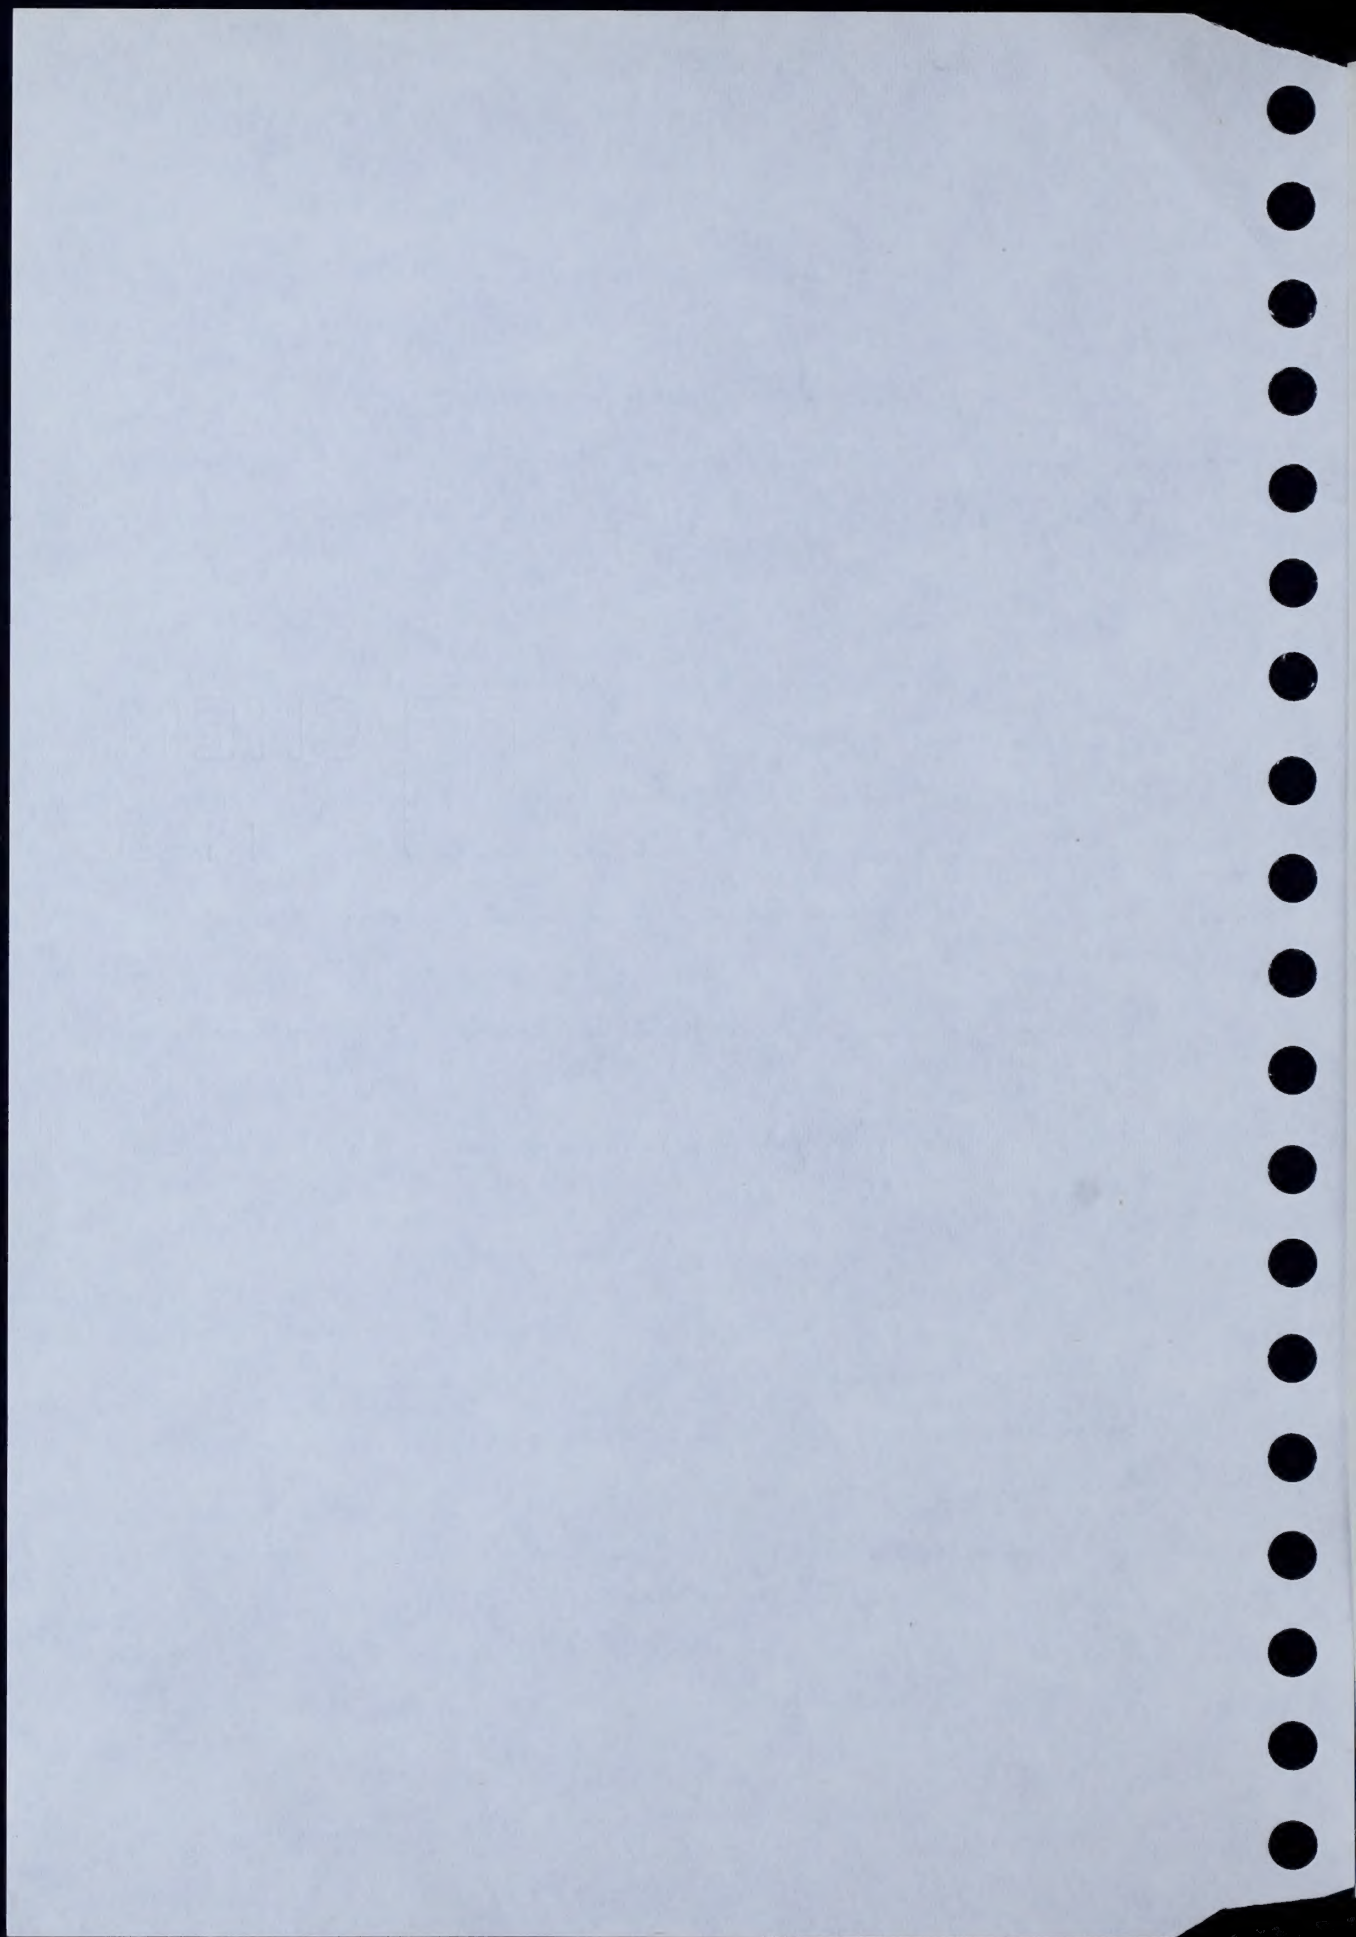

I also saw little Hattie Cornwall taken out of the river at Roblin. A cake of ice broke and let her in the River just as she was getting a pail of water before going to school.

Sent by Mrs. Alvina Cole, Milford, found while cleaning house in my mother's belongings. Maybe you could find a way to get my Uncle Joshua and Katharen in some of these U. E. L. clippings.

I have also been in that church and spent two weeks with my Aunt Katherine in 1848. There on my birthday 14 years old. Mrs. Perc. Sells was there also. She was my sister. Her name was Edith May Sells. My husband passed away May 2, 1960.
